

How to obtain grades via GradeMark

1. Student logs into Wattle and accesses the relevant Course
2. Student Selects 'Turnitin Assignment' within the relevant 'Topic'

3. Student checks that the 'Post Date' (the date a lecturer specifies grades may be released to students) has lapsed

Start Date	Due Date	Post Date
1/01/14, 12:55	12/02/14, 13:30	12/02/14, 14:00

4. Student selects the 'My Submissions' tab and will be able to view their overall grade, and access their assignment by selecting the assignment title or 'Similarity' percentage

5. Student selects the 'GradeMark' tab in the top left hand corner of their Originality Report

6. The GradeMark view of the marked assignment will be displayed to the student, presenting all comments and feedback a lecturer has recorded in the assignment, including:
 - a. The overall assignment grade
 - b. Personalised comments inserted into the assignment
 - c. 'Standard' comments (e.g. 'Weak transition') inserted into the assignment
 - d. General comments provided for the entire assignment
 - e. Rubrics the lecturer has used to grade the assignment (if applicable)

Student Assignment view in 'GradeMark':

The screenshot shows a Turnitin assignment interface. At the top, there are tabs for 'Originality', 'GradeMark', and 'PeerMark'. The assignment title is 'International Politics - Final Essay' by student 'STUDENT 9C4FC9F6DAF25'. Turnitin and Similarity scores are shown as 99% and 72% (out of 100). The main content area displays the student's essay with several annotations:

- A red box highlights a comment: "Strong definition, but requires additional context" next to the sentence: "International Politics defines itself as critical in character, truly international in scope, and totally engaged with the central issues facing the world today."
- A blue box labeled "Citation Needed" is placed over the text: "these instances of cooperation are regimes. The most commonly cited definition of regimes comes from Stephen Krasner. Krasner defines regimes as "institutions possessing norms, decision rules, and procedures which facilitate a convergence of expectations." [this quote needs a citation]"
- A red box highlights a comment: "Weak Transition" next to the sentence: "Not all approaches to regime theory, however are liberal or neoliberal; some realist scholars like Joseph Greico have developed hybrid theories which take a realist based approach to this fundamentally liberal theory. (Realists do not say cooperation never happens, just that it is not the norm; it is a difference of degree)."

On the right side, the 'General Comments' section contains a text comment: "Overall a strong understanding of core concepts. Deeper analysis into opposing view points and the strengths and weaknesses of each required".
